

My Own Revolution

Dyslesia

So there's a law to live
If only I knew its words
A little courage to say no
Is a picture of my paradise

Dream of reality
Something is going wrong inside
Try if you can to understand me
But don't say a word
Searching for my holy land
Feel my cries
Hear my screams

So there's a law to see
If I could open my eyes
A little courage to say no
Is a picture of my paradise
