

Living The Life

Eagle Eye Cherry

Josie's never been the kind of girl to stop and think it through
Just like you
And now she's hunting dreams that leaves you feeling so far and moved
With no clue

She goes out all night
Out all nights
You gotta get back up, shake it off
And change it for a better mood
Yea, you do

And you've been living the life
'Cause you've been letting it out
But it ain't how you survived
You've been living your life

Everybody's running down to see the shadow fight for him
Think you'll win
It feels like rock n roll is beating up on all, you play with him
To fit in

She goes out all night
Out all nights
You gotta get back up, shake it off and don't forget about your friends
Don't give in

You've been living the life
You've been letting it out
But it ain't how you survived
When you've been living your life

Now Josie's gone ad made and run around and live in disarray
On display
And all the moves she makes is gonna be about the game she plays
Every day

She goes out all night
Out all nights
You gotta get back up, shake it off
And change it for a better way
Don't delay

You've been living the life (You've been living the life)
You've been letting it out (You've been letting it out)
But it ain't how you survived (it ain't how you survived)
When you've been living your life

life)

'Cause you've been letting it out (You've been letting it out)

Yea, you've gotta survive (Yea, you've gotta survive)

'Cause you've been living the life (Yes, you've been there)
