

Walk Away

Eagle Eye Cherry

Have you ever met a girl?
She becomes your world
And your life revolves around her
She don't even know what she can do

Have you ever gone that way?
Did she lead you all astray?
You tried so hard to be cool
Tried so hard to be okay

And you see her clearer now
You see clearer than she'll ever know

Walk away, walk away, you don't give in
'Cause you know she will get you in the end
Walk away, walk away, you just can't win
She will get you in the end

Now do you remember who
You tried to hold onto?
If your world crashed down around you
She moved on and you did too

Have you ever felt the pain?
One that won't just go away
And you try so hard to believe
Tried so hard to be okay

And you see her clearer now
You see clearer than she'll ever know

Walk away, walk away, you don't give in
'Cause you know she will get you in the end
Walk away, walk away, you just can't win
She will get you in the end

Before you know it she'll be in your blood and you can't stop
One look and you're tied whole
You swear to God this time is different but you know it's not
So don't even go there

Walk away, walk away, you don't give in
'Cause you know she will get you in the end
Walk away, walk away, you just can't win
She will get you in the end

Walk away, walk away, you don't give in
'Cause you know she will get you in the end
Walk away, walk away, you just can't win
She will get you in the end
