

You Kill Me (Everyday)

Eagle Eye Cherry

You're a circle with the corners, you're a clock without the time
A book without the words, your revolution is a mind
You're a war without a cause, a drunk and a drug You're a win but still you lost, now you punch me with that heart

Yea you
You kill me everyday
You
But I knew there was no better mistake

You're a fight without the fist, you're a whirl that doesn't turn
A light that never goes out, you're a fire that won't burn
You're a heart without the beat, you're a tragedy that's fun
A spoon with cutting edges, now you're stop and never run

Yea you
You kill me everyday
I know you
Believe there was no better mistake

I never ever, never put a stone into your ship
I never ever, never gave up

Yea you
You kill me everyday

1, 2, 3, 4

You're melon with no red lips, lips that always kiss kiss
I miss the way you look look like I'm a bait on a hook
The queen and the crook, Peter Pan and Captain Hook
I'm pleading for a happy end, a love that never ends

Yea you
You kill me everyday
You
Believe knew there was no better mistake

I never ever, never put a stone into your ship
I never ever, never gave up on you

You kill me every single day
