

At the End of Forever

Eagleheart

Take a trip in time with me
Far away from world you've seen
See decline of human race
Who will catch our fall from grace?

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
We fall as victims of one's lust
Love is out and war is in they blow your mind so you believe in

Tried to see paradise, facing devil instead
Time is waiting for noone
turning life into death

We reap the evil you have sown
Scared to see what we have grown
Oh my friend it's not a dream
That's the world we all live in

Tried to reign in the sky, chasing shadows instead
Time is waiting for noone
Brings me to my last breath

We are at the end of forever
Just hear the cry of the undying sun
Wait for the ending to come

Taken down by the last kiss of anger
The price for all we have done
We are the last in the line

Try to find paradise, avoid the mistakes we've made
Hope is waiting for someone
Turn the sand-glass till it's too late

We are at the end of forever
Just hear the cry of the undying sun
Wait for the ending to come

Taken down by the last kiss of anger
The price for all we have done
We are the last in the line
