

Buried Alive

Eagleheart

Face to face
Now I am falling
Into the abyss of your eyes
There's no escape
For you I'm dying
I am a prisoner in my own paradise
If I could unlock your heart
we would never be apart

All my whole
Now torn to pieces
Where's now the power I had inside?
I feel the sun
Burning my wishes
What is a new day when there is no light?
I am losing my mind
Where's the key I have to find?

Drowning in the ocean of dust
Memories locked in circle of past
I'm calling...will you come to heal me?
'cause I feel like buried alive by love

Drowning in the ocean of dust
Memories locked in circle of past
I'm calling...will you come to heal me?
'cause I feel like buried alive...

Drowning in the ocean of dust
Memories locked in circle of past
I'm calling...will you come to heal me?
'cause I feel like buried alive by love

Buried alive by love
Buried alive by love
