

High Voltage

Eagles of Death Metal

It opens right on time
Shes just a Hollywood lie
Yeah we're getting freaky in the shadows of the night
She loves rock n roll yeah the girls high voltage

She'll have you suckin on your finger (that's nasty) from the prayer to wa-langa yeah we're gettin sneaky in the shadows of the lime light

She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she loves rock n roll
The girls high voltage

She's right on time
She's always on time
She's always on time
She's always on time
She's always on time

She's like a sweet transistor
You knows I missed her We're gettin on high you want it comin from the east side
I wanna be the showpiece of the nasty boy collection

She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she's a sweet transistor
She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she's like a sweet transistor
You know I kissed her
She's always right on time yeah whoa
She's just a hollywood lie yeah whoa
Yeah we're gettin freaky in the shadows of the lime light

You know I kissed her the girl's high voltage
She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she loves rock n roll
She's hot but she loves it!
