

Time Has Come Today

Steve Earle

Time has come today
Young hearts can go that way
Can't put it off another day
I don't care what others say

They say we don't listen anyway
Time has come today
The rules have changed today
I have no place to stay

Thinking about the subway
The love has flown away
My tears have come and gone
Oh, my Lord, I have to roam

I have no home
I have no home

Now the time has come
No place to run
I might get burned up by the sun
But I had my fun

I've been loved and put aside
I've been crushed by tumbling tide
And my soul has been psychedelized
Now the time has come

There are things to realize
Time has come today
Time has come today
Time
