

Hymn And Her

Earlimart

If I ever get to sleep
I'll be deep inside my dreams
Where no one bothers me
And things are not what they seem
Falling backwards through the forward
Strange and beautifully

So won't you just leave me be?
Leave me here, safe and warm,
Simple and trouble-free
But I am just mumbling.
Let the words hang in the air
And bring them back to me

'Cause tonight I'm going back
To where we started from
Yeah, tonight I'm going back
To where we both belong

'Cause tonight I'm going back
To where we started from
In between there we would dream
And yeah we fell in love
'Cause tonight I'm going back
To where we started from
Yes, tonight I'm going back
To where we both belong

If I ever get to sleep
I'll be deep in my dreams,
Just you and me
