

Town Where You Belong

Earlimart

No, you don't remember the town where you were born
'Cause they never no no never opened up the doors In a dream that you were dreaming they'll open them for sure It's the town you don't remember
the town where you were born

Well you wiped out all your footsteps and you wiped out all your foes For the comfort and the safety that comes when you're alone
It's the town you don't remember
the town where you were born
It's the town that you are leaving
the town where you belong

Heaven knows the reason
heaven knows for sure
Heaven knows the reason
the town where you belong
