

Leave Me Alone

EarlyRise

Don't tell me to stop,
No, you don't exactly set a good example.
Stay right where you are while you criticize me,
I can't bear your lecture.

I think I've figured out
What you're all about,
So maybe you should leave me the f#!k alone.

Talk about your plans,
But you don't do anything but praise yourself.
You don't appreciate me,
And what I do is never good enough
For you.

Spent too much of my time trying to please you,
Didn't get me anywhere.
Now I can't afford to waste another second,
From now on I'm gonna do it my way.

Now all you talk about
Is how bad I turned out,
Guess you'll never leave me the f#!k alone.

Talk about your plans,
But you don't do anything but praise yourself.
You don't appreciate me,
And what I do is never good enough
For you

Look at me, on my own now,
And I'm better than ever.
Don't wanna play on the safe side,
And end up just like you.

Talk about your plans,
But you don't do anything but praise yourself.
You don't appreciate me,
And what I do is never good enough
For you.
