

Goodbye

Earshot

Hollow
Seem the stars in the sky
Where my dreams they seem to follow
Shadows
In the walls of my mind
And these thoughts they seem so shallow

I can't make sense of all this
Delivered to confusion from bliss
Sufered so long and I miss
Feeling alive

No
I'm not scared to say goodbye, I've had enough
Of your sick and twisted lies
AND your cold an heartless words
When you're slowly coming to
No I won't be with you
Do you feel the way I feel
Do you feel me moving on

Again I find
I'm searching for a place to run and hide
Somewhere to rest my mind
A moment to feel myself again and never say

I can't make sense of all this
Delivered to confusion from bliss
Sufered so long and I miss
Feeling alive

I'm ok
Now without you
Time to finally turn the page
So hurt and I
Won't forgive what you did to me
I can hardly breathe
