

Headstrong

Earshot

Strapped down and heavy, tied up and bound
This weight I carry, this weight
I've found
So, let me be the one to say I've really had enough

Downfallen on
(Yes, you meant the world to me)
My sweet love
So headstrong
(Are you?)
Strong

One time too many
You've let me down
Won't think what could be
Can' feel much now

Downfallen on
(Yes, you meant the world to me)
My sweet love
So headstrong
(Are you?)
Strong

Does it really meant that much to you,
To hide your fear, to test the way I feel

Watch me fall
Watch me break
Watch me crawl
Watch me throw it all away

I can't believe the things you say, so wrong for how I feel this way
I'm sleeping to relieve this strain so...
Calmly, slowly, softly, just let it all just drift away
