Ordinary Girl

Earshot

Wait, there is too much on my mind are we here just to simply pass the time? all these questions awake inside my head all these questions awake inside me...(2x)

Now, what I would give what I would try... to be with just an ordinary girl what I would give again, only if I... could be with just an ordinary girl

Stop, I'm not happy anymore you bring heartache and anger to the core I have nothing to give inside me now I have nothing to give inside me...(2x)

Doesn't really matter, I'm alone now thrown out to the world do you feel the same? cuz we all feel the same...sometimes
