

Smash Or Be Smashed

Earth Crisis

Swords beaten into rust, but not by all.
Lulled into a walking sleep, youth primed to fall. In the minds of tyrants, might justifies.
These are the thoughts that fester within their minds.
To the victors go the gains, time's lesson taught. Tomorrows victims, the past forgot.
Swords beaten into rust, but not by all. Lulled into a walking sleep,
youth primed to fall. In the minds of tyrants, might justifies. These are the thoughts that fester within thei r minds.
The right of strength is the right to take it all.
The right of strength is the right to take it all.
The right of strength is the right to take it all.
The right of strength is the right to take it all.
Smash or be smashed. Inmates of a merciless world. Smash or be smashed. Inmates of a merciless world.
Smash or be smashed.
