

P.r.d Chaos

earthtone9

lie to me, for a short while lay with me, for a short while i will wear my fears for you

lay me down there's nothing done closed eyes bring change too great, lost sometimes

ask a question
not just any
what am i, about being lost

last caress and nothing done

ask a question, question, question
