lay me down there's nothing done closed eyes bring change too great, lost sometimes closed eyes bring change too great, lost sometimes i will wear my fears for you

ask a question
not just any what am i, about being lost closed eyes bring change too great, lost sometimes i will wear my fears for you

ask a question, question, question live version of 'p.r.d. chaos' has karl shouting "raging fking speedhorn!" at the end
