

Disturbed

East West

Lies birthed kill innocence.
Childs smile turn upside-down.
Silence bears the mark you see, bring an end to what's to come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we meet a gain.
You, You're the reason. You're the one that's stealing my freed om.
Anger scars another back, Child quiet to mask the pain,
Running from a scary man, bring an end to what's to come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we meet a gain.
Refresh me, renew me, refresh me, renew me?
