

Wake

East West

And now I see the end,
And everything is gone,
As I begin to move,
As I begin to see.

And all I want to do.
Is be in here you.

You will wake me.
You will wake me up!

And now I see this life,
As it begins to shine,
And I begin to see,
Just what;s inside of me.

Now I wait here broken,
Waiting to see you,
Eyes wide open.
