

That's Gonna Leave A Memory

Easton Corbin

If you're gonna go and tell me goodbye,
Why you gotta go and wear your jeans so tight?
You don't need those boots to just get gone,
And in the end it's my heart you're walkin' on.

That's gonna leave a memory, that's gonna hurt a while.
Long nights goin' crazy, every mornin' I'll be
Cryin' like a baby, baby can't you see
That's gonna leave a memory, the way you're leavin' me

I don't wanna watch a 10 walk away,
I could maybe take a 7 or an 8.
There's some things that just don't go together like,
Never wear a short dress for a long goodbye.

That's gonna leave a memory, that's gonna hurt a while.
Long nights goin' crazy, every mornin' I'll be
Cryin' like a baby, baby can't you see
That's gonna leave a memory, the way you're leavin' me

Don't walk, run fast
Baby don't look back

That's gonna leave a memory, that's gonna hurt a while.
Long nights goin' crazy, every mornin' I'll be
Cryin' like a baby, baby can't you see
That's gonna leave a memory, the way you're leavin' me

The way you're leavin' me
