

Goodnight

Easyworld

Goodnight my friends
I'm glad you've come around
You've been so down
The joy of seeing you smile
So wide, it don't mean anything

These broken shoes
Have done some walking and
Though all these holes
You touch the ground and it feels like home
It don't mean anything

Don't look and you won't find
It's always worth your time
I love you and goodnight
Goodnight

I said this day hurt
Won't last forever and
This time I'm right
So you turn to me and you smile
So wide, it don't mean anything

This lucky day
Its been a long time coming and
All that we've done
Won't be forgotten goodnight
Goodnight

Don't look and you won't find
It's always worth your time
I love you and goodnight
Goodnight
