

Tonight

Easyworld

Forget me if you can
This I understand, too well
Failed to make you mine
Heart attack in line tastes
A thousand broken hearts
Littering your path, through here
Oh tell me that you lied
Say you never think, of, me

But tonight, before you sleep
There will be a you and me
And I hope I'm on your mind

Its worn away in time
The fingerprints are mine, still show
This chance as good as blown
I don't wanna be alone, tonight

A thousand broken hearts
Littering your path, through here
Oh its so beautiful and sad
Me from nothing but I want you, back

But tonight, before you sleep
There will be, a you and me
And I hope I'm on your mind

Am I I anything at all?
We said the word, oh you can be anything at all
Tonight
