

Scream

Echobelly

What's it all about? Ah, ha, ha
Spent my whole life praying for a chance to be here
And things are not the same as expected
It's been a hard time

Oh, to be wrong
There's no heaven in the sky, have you ever?
Well, here's your chance and you can't tell me
This is wrong, there's no heaven in the sky
Have you ever? Have you ever? Have you ever
Cared to scream?

First you steal my breath, ha, ha, ha
And now I'm short on trust
I stand up for the test
And then I lie down

Oh, to be wrong
There's no heaven in the sky, have you ever?
Well here's your chance and you can't tell us
This is wrong, there's no heaven in the sky
Have you ever? Have you ever? Have you ever
Cared to scream, cared to scream?

Let me take you down, 'cause I feel divine
Like some holy cow on a fallen shrine
Like a waterfall made of alcohol
Oh, why? Tell me, why?

Waiting for a friend, ah, ha, ha
It's been a long time
I'm waiting here again
Such a long time

Long, long, long
Long, long, long
You, oh, you bring me down
You, you kill me,
You kill me, you kill me
