

What You Deserve

Echobelly

Am I anyone to ease the way?
You want inner calm, I deviate
I'm not what you want to be, I'm not the same
Can't live in doubt, with or without finding out
And here it ends

I've given all that I really want
And if I reap what I sow
Maybe I'm not the only one

While I'm wide awake this to you I dedicate
Learn to read between the words
I hope you get what you deserve

Am I the one to compromise?
Can't live in doubt, with or without finding out
No sacrifice

I've given all that I really want
And if I reap what I sow
Maybe I'm not the only one
Who needs room enough to grow
Maybe I'm not the only one

While I'm wide awake this to you I dedicate
Learn to read between the words
Hope you get what you deserve

I've given all that I really want
And if I reap what I sow
Maybe I'm not the only one
Who needs room enough to grow

I've given all that I really want
If I reap what I sow
Maybe I'm not the only one

While I'm wide awake this to you I dedicate
Learn to read between the words
Hope you get what you deserve
