

The Kingdom Within

Echoes of Eternity

I wandered through the forest blind
The Golden Land I searched so hard to find
Lay in ruins beneath the soul I left so far behind
Lost somewhere within the sands of time

But I found comfort in your truth
Solace in your words
The kingdom we seek lies within

I could feel your warmth and light
When cold and darkness filled the sky
Your words became a shining path that lead me through the night
"The land you seek has always been, it lies within"

I found comfort in your truth
Solace in your words
The kingdom we seek lies within
