

Hallelujah

Echoing Angels

Let Your glory fall on me
All of my life I lay at Your feet
You are my everything
The reason I live, the reason I see

You are my God, You are my king
The infinite life that is living in me
And all that I am will always believe
That You are my Savior
And that's why I sing Hallelujah

You stole my heart away
Never again will I be the same
Lord, I lift up Your name
Now and forever I will proclaim

You are my God, You are my king
The infinite life that is living in me
And all that I am will always believe
That You are my Savior
And that's why I sing Hallelujah

And with every breath
I will sing to You
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
And forever proclaim

You are my God, You are my king
The infinite life that is living in me
And all that I am will always believe
You are my savior and that's why I sing

You are my God, You are my king
The infinite life that's living in me
And all that I am will always believe
You are my savior, that's why I sing
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
