

Move Me

Echoing Angels

Here I am, come move me
For I am standing still
Take my hand and guide me
Closer to Your will
I'm like a cry without the tears
Just like the heart without the fears
I want You to want me
I know that I need You
I want You to want me
'Cause I want You
For so long I've wasted
This life You've given me
I have felt and tasted
But I have never seen
I'm like a cry without the tears
Just like the heart without the fears
I want You to want me
I know that I need You
I want You to want me
'Cause I want You
When it's all said and done
When it's finally over
I know this is true
I may still be standing here
But I'll be moved by You, yeah
I want You to want me
I know that I need You
I want You to want me
'Cause I want You
'Cause I want You
And I need You
And I want You
And I need You, yeah
'Cause I want You
And I need You
'Cause I want You
