

The Act Of Degradation

Eclipse

Carried away by a crazy dance
In the fire of hellish fury
Torn by anger, burning with hatred
It's time to start the act of brutish violence
Oh, whirlwind - howl the monstrous groan now
Take off the crowns from the iniquitous heads
Hypocrisy is creeping from their mouths full of venom
Their pride is still insatiable
I'm paying for falsity with falsity
The gardens of my mind breed roses
... black ones!
Their thorns will slay many people
Let's rise the axe of the wind
Dressed in the scarlet coat
Taste the goblet of bitterness
Know the smell of degradation
Touch the frames of fall
I can see deaf despair
Lurking in the empty eyes
I can feel eternal fear
Wandering around in their rotten hearts
Justice has been done
The shadow has escaped out of the dusk
And he threw the iniquitous down into the abyss
And it took the snake's crown from their heads
Taste the goblet of bitterness
Know the smell of degradation
Touch the frames of fall
I can see deaf despair
Lurking in the empty eyes
I can feel eternal fear
Wandering around in their rotten hearts
