

The Venom

Eclipse

Here it comes again...

The shiver

Delicate rustle of leaves

Then... more and more distinct

Steps

Dressed in airy gown

Then... stronger devil's patter

It goes faster and faster driven by hatred body

It tears the thought apart with beast's claw

It flexes its spine and spits the venom

Here it comes again...

The shiver

Delicate rustle of leaves

Then... more and more distinct

Steps

Dressed in airy gown

Then... stronger devil's patter

Fall on your knees in front of the altar of humility

No!

Cover yourself with the coat of pessimism

No!

Stabbing with a dagger

Scream stopped in the middle

Stillness and silence

So calm and blissfully

Lave is cooling down

It's coming down from the mountains

But it won't touch me

I've got wings again

Fall on your knees in front of the altar of humility

No!

Put Gabriel's sceptre up

No!

Damn source of pain

It comes to life again

Fatal wounds are covered with phlegm

It becomes as strong as titans again

Where is my God

Has he gone away for ever?

Too much suffering

So little hope

It's time I feel for Nemesis

Damn source of pain

It comes to life again

Fatal wounds are covered with phlegm

Here it comes again...

The shiver

Delicate rustle of leaves

Then... more and more distinct

Steps

Dressed in airy gown
