Econoline Crush

Shadow dance lazily, across this dim lit room
Are you my enemy, my lover, my ruin?
Warm and shallow are, the waters of your soul
It's my difference, my hurt that makes you whole

Chorus:

You lift me up drag me down

And here I am

Alone

Searchin for serenity in the halls of discontent

Pieces of my sanity, my will, my hope have left

I don't understand, where this all began

Are you my enemy, my lover, my ruin?

(Chorus)

You are so far away

You are so far away

You lift me up, you drag me down

You leave me so alone

(Chorus)

I watch you turn away...I watch you

I watch you turn away...crying
