

Bittersweetheart

Ed Harcourt

If I could only see straight
I wouldn't be lonely these days
I'd drag my body out of this place
And every Sunday I sleep And pray that my soul will keep For I'll sit in the river and let the water creep

Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me
Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me

Well I've travelled around the earth and still I wonder if I'm the first human being who questions his worth And every word that you speak makes my heart sing when it's weak for often this outlook on life can be bleak

Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me
Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me

Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me
Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me

Bittersweetheart, bittersweetheart
you've been good to me
