Town Without Pity

Eddi Reader

When you're young and so in love and free And bewildered by the world you see Why do people hurt you so Only those in love would know What a town without pity can do

When we stop to gaze upon a star People talk about how mad we are Ours is such an evil age We're like flowers in a cage What a town without pity can do

Yeah, we have problems, many problems
We need an understanding heart
Why don't they help us, try to help us
Before this grey and granite planet falls apart

Take these eager lips and hold me fast I'm afraid this kind of joy can't last How can we keep love alive How can anything survive When these little minds tear you in two What a town without pity can do

How we can we keep love alive How can anything survive When these little minds tear you in two What a town without pity can do

No it isn't very pretty What a town without pity...pause can do
