

A Million Teardrops

Eddie Cochran

There must be a million (there must be a million)
Teardrops falling down (they're falling down)
Yes, there must be a million (yes, there's one million)
I'll forget somehow (I'll forget somehow)
How long I am crying, still I'm yours to commend
Take this love that I give you, here's my heart in my hand

Alone, alone I am crying (Oh, how I cry)
I am yours to commend (I'm yours to commend)
Take this love that I give you (my, my love I give you)
Here's my heart in my hand
