

Completely Sweet

Eddie Cochran

Well completely sweet that's my baby
Completely sweet, I don't mean maybe
Well completely sweet that's my baby
Completely sweet, I don't mean maybe
And I love her more 'n' more each day
She's so completely sweet

Well a-just like a-honey, that the bees bring in Mmm, a-just like a honey, that the bees bring in Mmm, I get my sugar, when I kiss her on the chin

Well the sugar in my coffee, well the sugar in my tea
Well the sugar in my coffee, mmmm the sugar in my tea
Mmm, they both taste better, with a sugar on my knee
