

Cryin' In One Eye

Eddie Cochran

I am cryin' in one eye over you
While the other searches for someone new
If you do me wrong, I'll be gone
'Cause my other eye would tell me to roam
Cryin' in one eye over you
The other feels for the one that's blue
If you love me like you say you do
I'll turn my other eye on you

My one eye is shy, the other weepin'
'Cause I cry for you in my sleepin'
That's no fib as you will know
My other eye will soon start to flow
My love for you is very strong
It's my fault if I'm all alone
To love you and leave you is so wrong
I'll be cryin' in both eyes from now on
