

Drownin' All My Sorrows

Eddie Cochran

You ask me if I'm lonesome, you say you're feelin' blue
Go get lost little baby doll, I don't wanna mess with you
I'm drownin' all my sorrows, I wanna be left alone
For the one I love has left me
She won't even answer the phone
You ask me why I'm cryin', you just don't understand
The one I thought was mine alone has found her another man
I'm drownin' all my sorrows, the lights are gettin' kinda dim
She left me for another, I bet she'll do the same thing to him

I'll never trust a woman, they never can be true
They take your money, break your heart
And leave you feelin' blue
I'm drownin' all my sorrows, I guess a guy like me can't win
I don't know where I'm goin', I don't even know where I been Well my poor head is achin', I just can't seem to think
Pour me out a double please and pour this little gal a drink
I've drowned all my sorrows and now I'm gonna have a plain
I'm glad my baby left me, to me she never meant a thing
