

My Eyes Are Crying For You

Eddie Cochran

Put your little hands in mine
Say you'll love me all the time
My heart is sighing, it's almost dying
My eyes are crying for you
Hold me close and squeeze me tight
If you would only treat me right
My heart is sighing, it's almost dying
My eyes are crying for you
I loved you since time began
And I always will
I need you here by my side
This world's to know how I feel
Let me whisper in your ear
Little words like "I love you dear"
My heart is sighing, it's almost dying
My eyes are crying for you
