

Pocketful Of Hearts

Eddie Cochran

A pocketful of hearts, a-baby you collect 'em
A pocketful of hearts, and then you go and wreck 'em
A pocketful of hearts, 'cause you just neglect 'em
For a love that's new
A pocketful of hearts, crazy how you get 'em
A pocketful of hearts, a-love 'em and forget 'em
A pocketful of hearts, a-baby you condemn 'em
One more fool, me too
Play with fire and you'll get burned
The story's always true
You never dreamed a heart like yours
Could ever be so blue
A pocketful of hearts, one is gonna haunt you
A pocketful of hearts, one is gonna taunt you
A pocketful of hearts, when he doesn't want you
You'll be cryin' too
