

Spilled Milk

Eddie Cochran

Well, baby our love was born the moment that we met
But early in the morning, the grass is always wet
So, just like the dewdrops, our love would fade away
But how was I to know it couldn't last a day

But now there's no use crying
There's no use crying over spilled milk
No use crying, there's no use crying over spilled milk

I know just what went wrong, the cards I didn't play
If my game was strong, she'd still be mine today
But losing ain't my name, although I not the same
I ain't gonna be no fool, put myself to shame

'Cause there's no use crying
There's no use crying over spilled milk
No use crying, there's no use crying over spilled milk

We're all washed up it's true, the rain came all too soon
But I'll find someone new, this won't be my ruin
And if I play it smart, on a brand new start
I know just how to hold on, to my new found heart

And then there's no use crying
There's no use crying over spilled milk
No use crying, there's no use crying over spilled milk
Spilled milk, yeah, spilled milk
