Some Day Soon

Eddie Fisher

(Some day soon can't come too soon for me)
Some day soon
On a strange and magic street
We will meet, my love
Yes, you will come along

All the joys that were ever denied me All at once will be walking beside me Somehow someday soon My sad heart will change it's tune From a blue lament into A beautiful song

Until then, I'll keep waiting Waiting, waiting, waiting, patiently

Deep inside this longing grows So as the old expression goes Someday soon, can't come too soon for me

(Someday soon Lies that heart will change it's tune From a blue lament into A beautiful song)

Until then, I'll keep waiting Waiting, waiting, waiting, patiently
