I know you're tryin' to be a big girl
And keep the tears from your eyes
And it's going to be a little hard
To lift your head up high
And you're gonna need a man
A man who'll understand
Whoa darlin' darlin' darlin'
Please consider me

Well I know that all your friends
Have left you all alone
And all the good times you had with them are gone
So you need yourself a man
Yeah and I'll understand
Well darlin', darlin', darlin'
Please consider me

Baby, oh I've felt this way before
Many many many many times before
So you've got to have a man
Yeah and you know I'll understand
Whoa darlin', darlin', darlin'
Just consider me

I don't want to be left on the outside
Please consider me babe
I don't want to be left all alone
Please consider me yeah
I don't want to be left on the outside baby
Please consider me yeah
