

Bring On The Rain

Eddie Money

Well, the time has passed and now it seems
When I sleep, I never dream
I, I wonder why

I've got the chance, had confidence
When I was a young man
Now I, I didn't cry

Those sunny days never pass you by
California and the good, good life
I loved it so

But like you, too, I get the blues
And now I say now, now, the
Me, me and the rain, now we know

Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
I love the rain
I, I love, now, I
I love the rain

The cloudy skies can bring you back
Your mind can wander off the track
You head for home

The streets are empty everywhere
Down and out and no one cares
Now you're all alone

They might take this, they might take that
Still it doesn't change the fact
That you get by

Self-pity is the thing that I avoid now
'Cause you see it makes, makes everybody
Everybody cry, now I say

Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
I need the rain
I, I love now, I
I love the rain

Them sunny skies all look the same and
Man, I'm looking for a change
I, I want some rain now

Ooh, bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain, now

Well, now, rain can give us all some peace of mind
A passing storm always takes its time
Gives the world peace and solitude, now

It's something that we all look forward to

Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
I love the rain
I, I need, I need, I need, I need
I need the rain now

Well, them summer days start to look the same
Man, I'm looking for a change
How 'bout some rain now, yeah

Ooh, bring on the rain
Bring on the rain now
Bring on the rain

Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
How 'bout a change?
I need, I need, I need, I love
I love the rain

Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
I need, I need, I need, I love

You're special sweet
Just it makes you good
Ooh
