

Run Right Back

Eddie Money

Sometimes I wanna forget you, they'll burn you for your memory
Well, sometimes high but it just ain't no good, well it ain't n o good 4 me

I wanna push you right out of my heart, my heart sings a differ ent thing

I walk out that door and see I can't take it no more

And I'm running, I'm running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away no more...I'm running, and running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away no more

Sometimes I'm sure I'll do better if I just get away from you
And break this hock, took out of my heart, we won't find somebo dy new

I wan' be free somewhere so far away but I can't get these feet
2 move

You've got a hold on me, I try and break free

But I'm running, I'm running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away, darling...I'm running, I'm running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away, no no

This love won't set me free, this love has captured me

This love won't let me go, this love holds the heart and my sou l

I tried but I couldn't say goodbye

I'm running, I'm running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away no more...I'm running and running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away, darling...I'm running, I'm running

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)

I can't stay away, darling, I'm

(I'm running, I'm running, I'm running, I'll run right back)
