

I Just Got To Have You

Eddie Rabbitt

Blood rushing up into my brain
I'm weak and uneasy and I'm feeling strange
Baby (Baby)

Quivering legs and trembling hands
I don't believe even Superman
Can save me (Save me)

Throw your lifeline out to me
I'm a drowning man on a raging sea

And I just got to have you
There's no other way
I just got to have you
Not tomorrow, today

The moment that I first set eyes on you
Well, I made up my mind
My love, it ain't blind, baby
I just got to have you

Well, every man's got his fantasy
But you're beyond my wildest dreams
Baby (Baby)

And I'd give everything I own
Just to get you off alone
Baby (Baby)

Turn your green light on for me
I'm a speeding man on a dead-end street

And I just got to have you (Just got to have you)
There's no other way (Just got to have you)
I just got to have you
Not tomorrow, today

The moment that I first set eyes on you
Well, I made up my mind
My love, it ain't blind, baby
I just got to have you

I just got to have you (Just got to have you)
There's no other way (Just got to have you)
I just got to have you
Not tomorrow, today

The moment that I first set eyes on you
Well, I made up my mind
My love, it ain't blind, baby
