

She's Comin' Back To Say Goodbye

Eddie Rabbitt

There's a plane
Comin' in at night
I'm gonna leave a little early
Wanna be there on time
'cause my baby's
Flyin' in tonight
And i really can't believe
I'm gonna look in her eyes

And my heart
Is racin' down the loop
But there is something
That my heart don't know

She ain't comin' back
To stay the night
She's just comin' back
To make things right
To tell me face to face the truth
She's found somebody new
In her life

No, she's ain't comin' back
To stay this time
She's just comin' back
To ease her mind

No, she ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye
She ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye

She sees the lights
Of the city below
In just a couple of minutes
We'll be kissin' hello

And she acts like
She's readin' a book
But she's thinkin'
How happy i'm gonna look

And already
There's a lump in her throat
I wish she'd tell me
What i don't wanna know

She ain't comin' back
To stay the night
She's just comin' back
To make things right
To tell me face to face the truth
She's found somebody new
In her life (in her life)

No, she's ain't comin' back
To stay this time
She's just comin' back
To ease her mind

No, she ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye
She ain't comin' back to stay

She's comin' back
To say goodbye

She ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye

She ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye

She ain't comin' back to stay
She's comin' back
To say goodbye
