You Don't Love Me Anymore

Eddie Rabbitt

It'd be a lie to say that I'm not gonna miss you So please don't say goodbye now Till I've kissed you one more time And held you as I did when you were mine

It'd be a lie to say I don't still love you I won't be thinking of you, girl I'll never try to call you one more time Or try to find a way to change your mind

Ooh, you don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore, baby, please forgive me But the wine's gone to my head And tomorrow I'll remember how you turned to me and said

It'd be a lie to say that I still love you That I'll be thinking of you, boy I'll drive by to say hello sometime Oh, but now you're gone, and all I have Are five words on my mind

You don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore, baby, please forgive me But the wine's gone to my head And tomorrow I'll remember how you turned to me and said

Ooh, you don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore, I'll have to face it You don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore, honey, it hurts so bad

'Cause you don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore, tears are falling 'Cause you don't love me anymore, oh, baby You don't love me anymore
