No Ceiling

Eddie Vedder

Comes the morning When I can feel That there's nothing Left to be concealed Moving on, a scene surreal Know my heart will never Never be far from here

Sure as I'm breathing Sure as I'm sad I'll keep this wisdom In my flesh I leave here believing More than I had And there's a reason I'll be Reason I'll be back

As I walk the hemisphere Got my wish to up and disappear I been wounded I been healed Now for landing I been Landing I been cleared

Sure as I'm breathing Sure as I'm sad I'll keep this wisdom Iin my flesh I leave here believing More than I had This love has got No ceiling
