

Kentuckian Song

Eddy Arnold

I see my darling in each ray of summer sunlight
I see my darling in the leaves that fall
I see her walking in the rainy April sadness
And hear her voice in every bluebird call

I told the possum in the gumtree the raccoon on the ground
Told everyone but my darling of the happiness I found
My heart would cry more than the weeping willow tree
If my darling and her heart were not for me

I told the possum in the gumtree...
