

Alight A New Tomorrow

Edenbridge

Fraying, straying decaying, the world's at sea are we resigned to our fate ?
Lying, denying we're walking aimlessly trying, slying
saving face no longer

the world is waiting for
a change within our hearts
the last card for us all, a new era starts so hit the road out there
recall a far off time
step out here and follow

why, wherefore
hell-bent we should leave we think we've got oceans of time bridges burn
a decisive turn it will be waiting to happen a heavy load, this dusty road can't lead us too much longer

the world can't wait
it's for us all
