

The Invisible Force

Edenbridge

A lurid silence
inside me reliantly i'm waiting the affinity
the sweetest destiny the worlds i am creating a straw in times disheartening an insolation clear and pure the legacy within me a light to fall on hard times my ministering angel leads me all out of the mystery stay within you're the energy, an unfailing source guided by worlds unseen

(welcome)

bound to give a new lease on life, the great endeavor, my road starts deep within me a field of vision open an everlasting sunset glow is tearing down the boundary the flows shall have no ending a perfect remedy every cell electrified in me the reason of existence essential key of mine a neverending road within the shine so shine

(2x)
stay within
(welcome)
the invisible force
